EILEEN LEVIS RE-ELECTED TO AOPA'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

WASHINGTON, DC - OCTOBER 2, 2013—During the American Orthotic & Prosthetic Association's (AOPA) 2013 O&P World Congress in Orlando, Florida AOPA members re-elected Eileen Levis, to her position on the AOPA Board of Directors.

- Eileen Levis, President of Orthologix in Trevese, Pennsylvania, has over 30 years business experience, including beginning her career with the law firm of Louis Carter and the Wall Street Journal. For 25 of those years, she has managed a regional, multi-site Orthotics and Prosthetic practice. Ms. Levis expertise is in Practice and Strategy Management, Business Development and Process Implementation, Mergers & Acquisitions and Regulatory Affairs. She has held the position of President of the Pennsylvania Orthotic and Prosthetic Society for four years. She sits on the Medicare (NHIC) Jurisdiction A Provider Outreach and Education Advisory Board. She is a member of the Healthcare Financial Management Association as well as the Medical Group Management Association.

AOPA President Tom Kirk, Ph.D. congratulated Ms. Levis saying, "We are proud to have Eileen, an accomplished member of the O&P community, rejoin the AOPA Board of Directors during this important time for O&P. The Board is working tirelessly in the face of many threats on the state and national level to ensure that patients have access to quality care. The knowledge and experience Eileen brings with her makes her a vital contributor to AOPA's advocacy efforts for O&P."

AOPA, based in Alexandria, Virginia, is the largest non-profit organization dedicated to helping orthotic and prosthetic businesses and professionals navigate the multitude of issues surrounding the delivery of quality patient care. The association was founded when needs of returning veterans in the aftermath of World War I required a national organization to address the educational and research requirements of the industry.
